INSTRUCTIONS
The School of Law Office of Admissions and Financial Aid establishes a standard student expense budget (also referred to as “cost of attendance”) for students in accordance with federal regulations (20 U.S.C. Sec. 1087II). Commonly accepted educational expenses are included, such as tuition, fees, books, supplies, and personal allowance. At the University of Dayton, the standard budget encompasses an enrollment period of one academic year (two semesters). Students who enroll in the summer term in addition to the fall and spring will also be provided a summer budget for enrollment expenses. Students who feel the standard budget does not accurately reflect their expenses may request a review of acceptable expenses using this budget appeal form. An increase to your budget will allow you to seek additional loan funds via the Federal Direct Student Loan Program or a private lender. Please allow up to two weeks for review of your appeal. Total amount of budget increase requested: $

FINANCIAL AWARENESS
Educational loan indebtedness continues to be a growing concern, therefore, we recommend you consider your current state of educational loan debt, monthly payment obligation and monthly earning potential before requesting additional funds. Please review these sources to assist you:
1. Your aggregate Federal student loan amounts (NSLDS)
2. Your estimated monthly payment for those loans. (Loan Simulator)
3. Your monthly earning potential (Wage Estimates)

ANNUAL COST OF ATTENDANCE
Your annual estimated annual cost of attendance can be found in your Porches account under "Award Overview." Standard student expense budgets listed are created using guidelines set forth by the College Board™
