

Special Interest House Group Types

There are a variety of different groups who apply for Special Interest Housing. Depending on the type of group, there may be additional pre-application procedures. Listed below are the different types of groups and whether the Special Interest group requires a pre-application. For more information on a particular type of organization, please email housing@udayton.edu with the group type listed in the subject line. Some specific group types may have an alternate email address for specific pre-application questions.

For those groups interested in becoming a Legacy House, please review the Application for Legacy House information and submit a proposal to housing@udayton.edu by January 14, 2022.
